

Canon of Ethics

I agree to uphold this Canon of Ethics in dealing with clients and with Cambridge Advisors, LLC.

- that my single primary purpose is to provide education to my clients.
- to conscientiously schedule and complete all work contracted for. Phone calls will be returned within one business day.
- to continue to maintain education services available to clients beyond the scope agreed to in the retainer agreement which shall include seminars, dinners, etc.
- to assiduously make available and take advantage of continuing education programs to continually improve my professional competence.
- to act objectively in all matter with clients, and not take commissions or kickbacks based on advice or recommendations given to clients from any other source other than client fees.
- not to indulge or participate in any matter or any activity involving fraud, backdating of instruments, etc.
- never to endorse, finance or lend the Cambridge Advisors name to any related facility or outside enterprise. Cambridge Advisors has no opinion on outside issues hence the Cambridge Advisors name ought not to never be drawn into public controversy.
- to recognize that my public relations is based on attraction rather than promotion, hence to limit advertising to phone directories and appropriate local publications.
- to pay any moneys agreed to in a prompt and timely manner without requiring follow-up by clients., Cambridge Advisors or the United States government.
- to file personal tax returns and maintain licenses and/or regulatory requirements as determined by state or federal regulatory authority.
- To fully disclose any incident or matter involving these Canon of Ethics